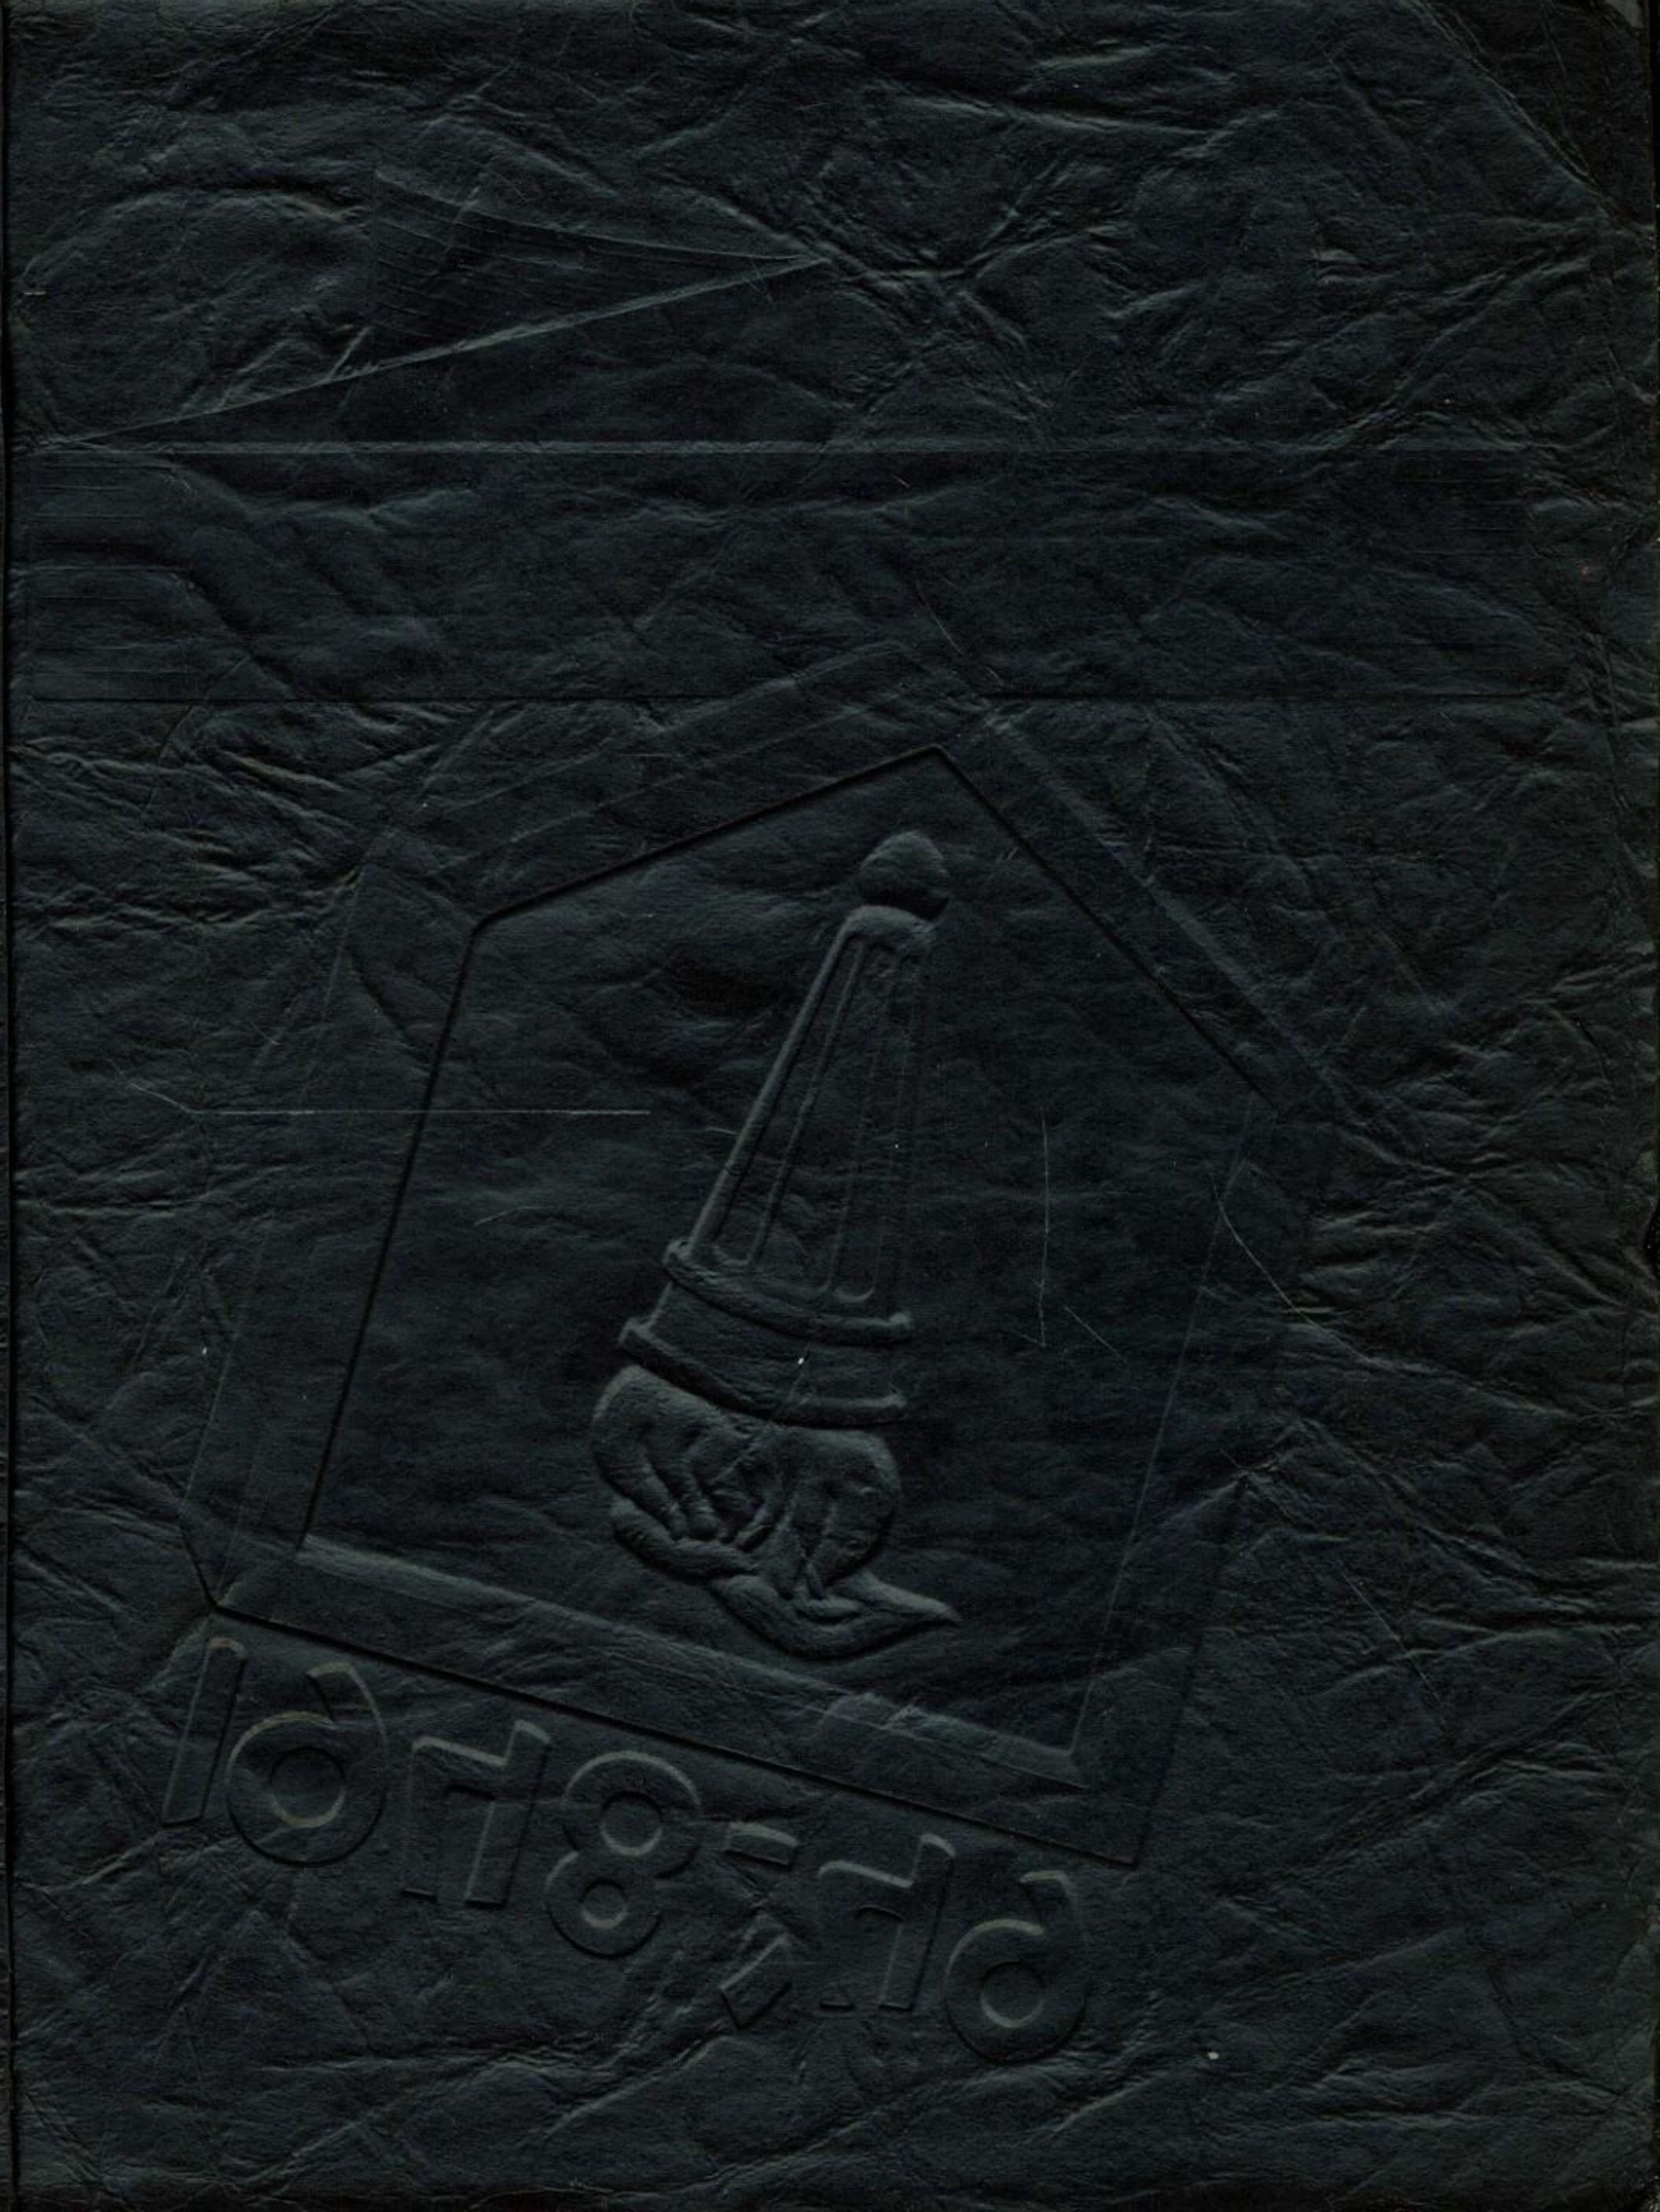
TIGER STRIPE



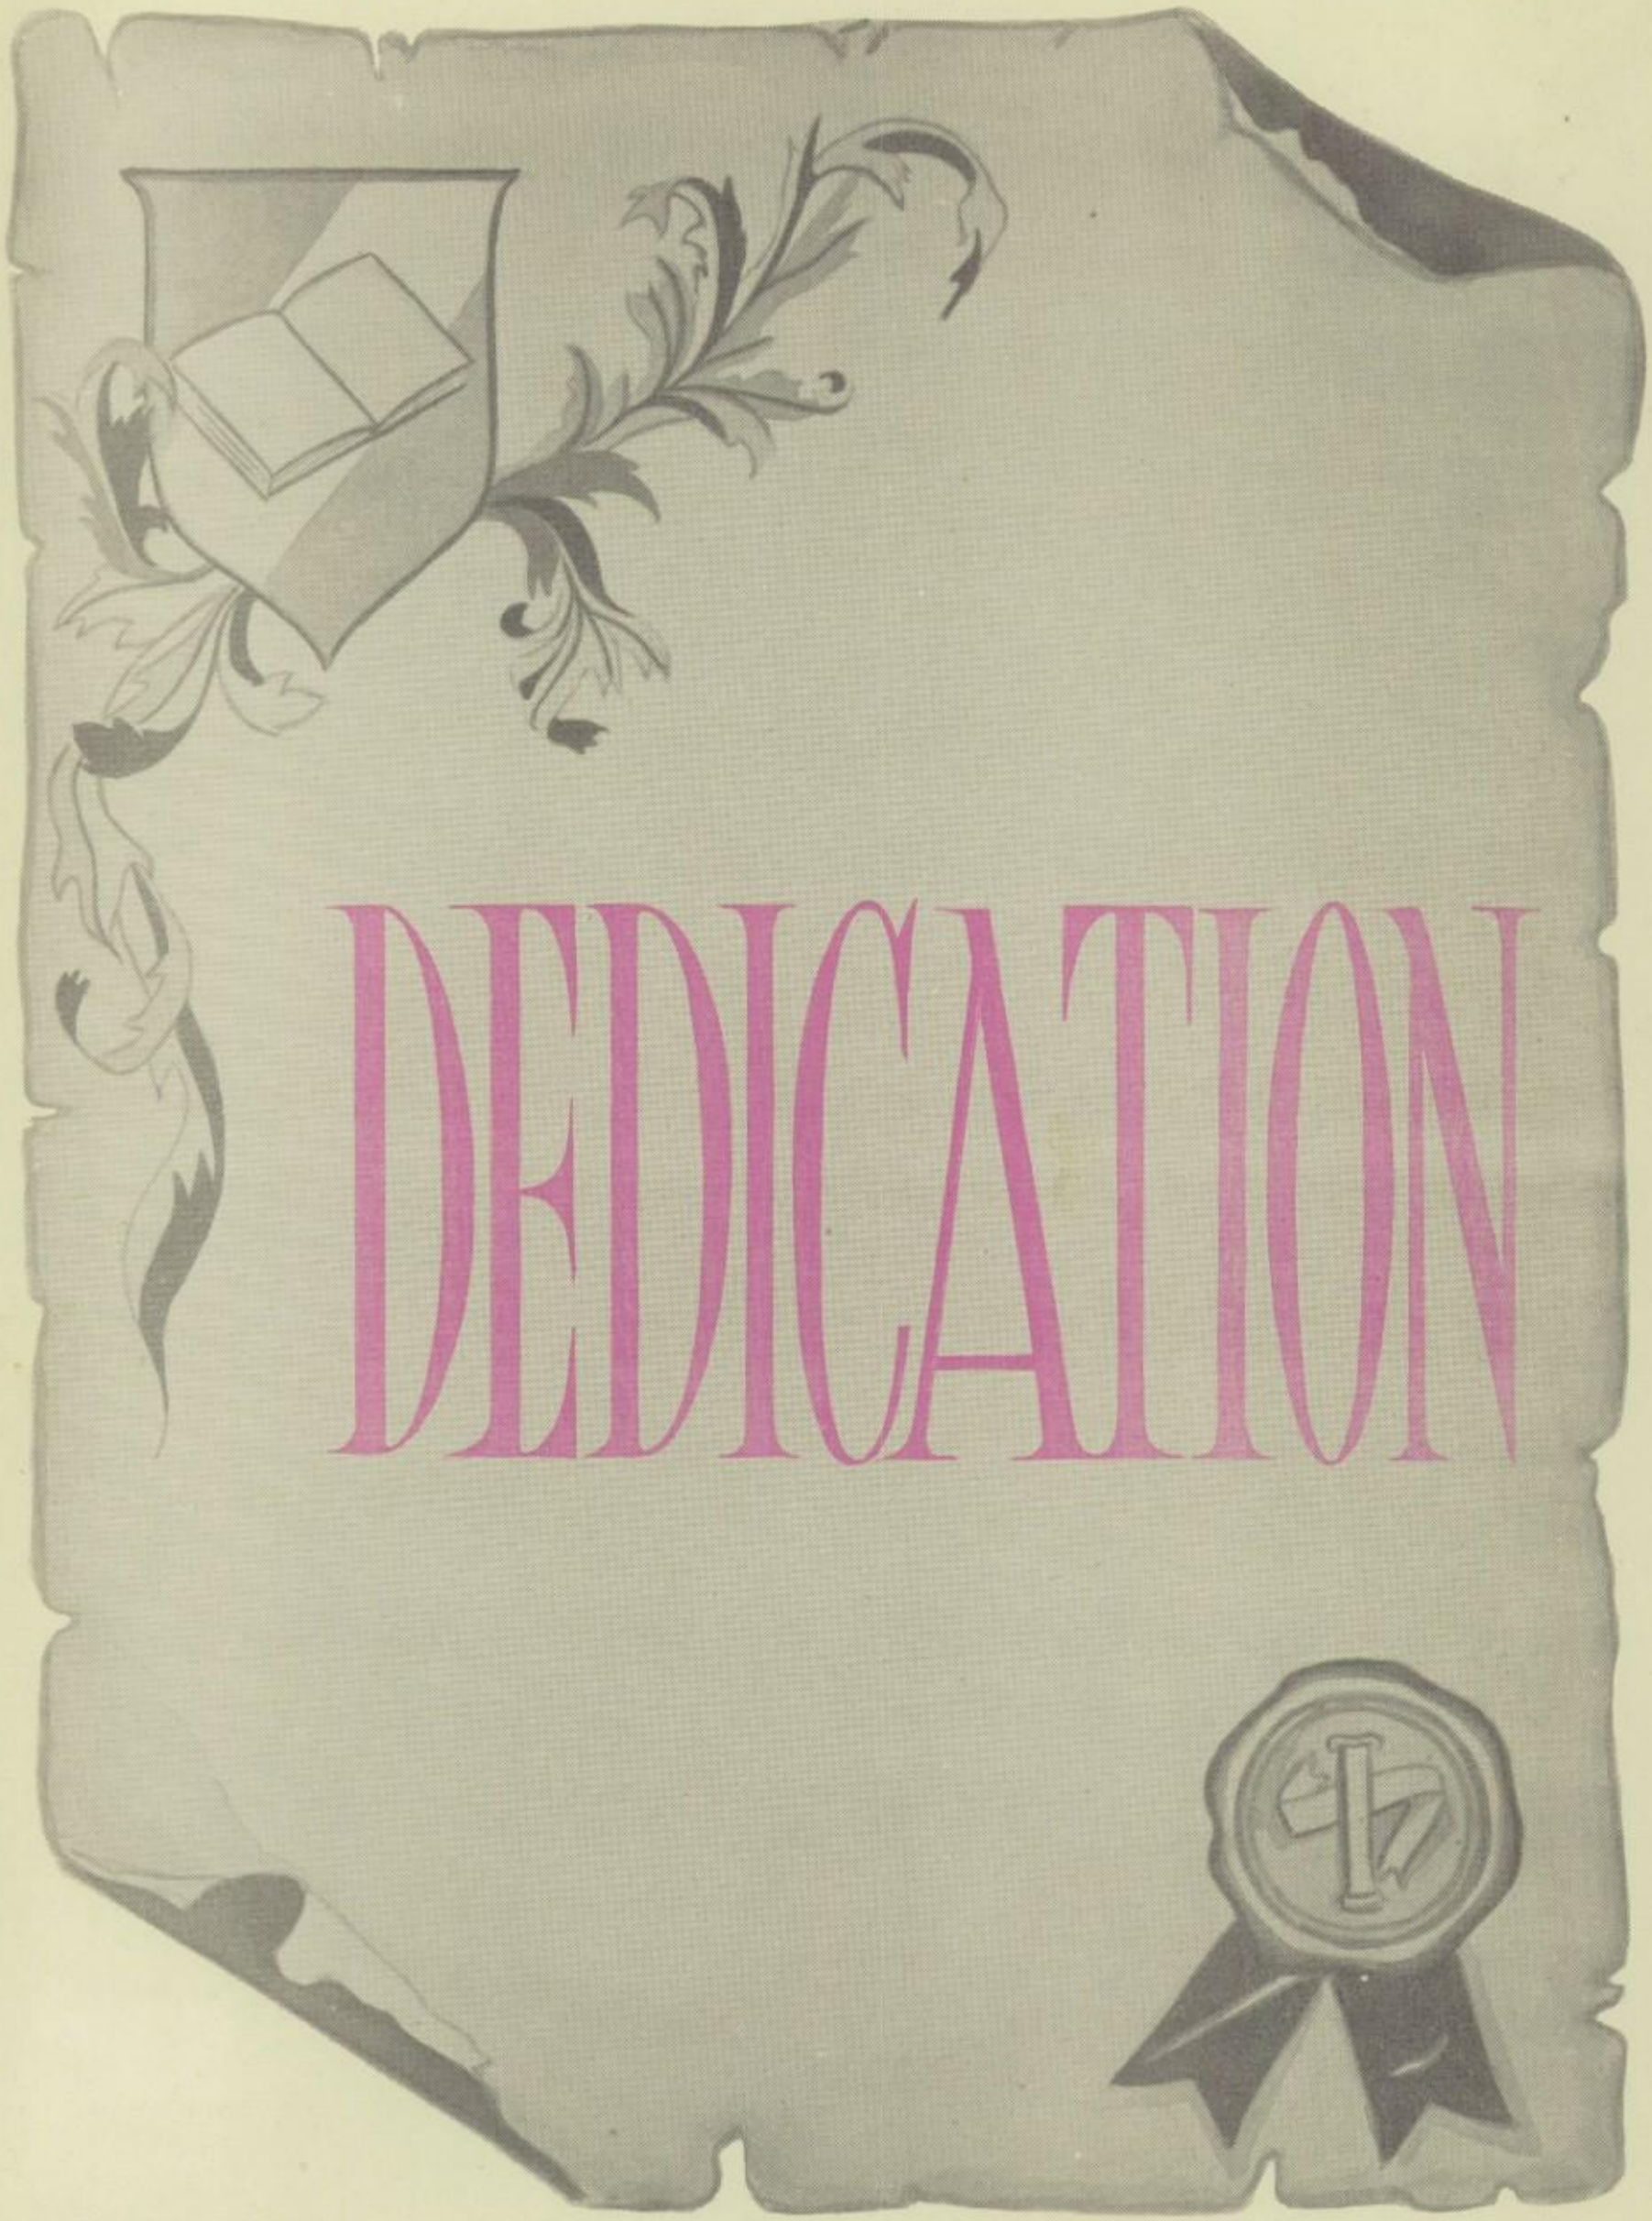
Chatfield High School

Chatfield High School students are we,
   Seeking knowledge ever we'll be,
Our lives to improve we shall try
   Dear old Chatfield High.

Chatfield, our dear old Chatfield High School
   Chatfield, the school we love so well.
Ever we will submit to your rule,
   Ever of your praises tell.

Sacred the memory we shall cherish
   Of friends and of teachers all so true.
Your colors, orange and black,
   Bid us come back, Chatfield, to you.

Chatfield High School, dear to my heart,
   Sad the day when we must part.
Happy days are now passing by,



DEDICATION

DEDICATION

To the people of the community of Chatfield, who have believed in us, given us this opportunity to learn, and always supported all our projects and programs, we, the annual staff, in recognition of this, dedicate this annual.

THE FACULTY

It is entirely fitting that many of the important events of your life center around the Chatfield School. We hope to make every effort to bring this about by greeting you during our many varied activities presented at the school. Make this place your educational and civic center. The faculty and student body will assure you a cordial welcome.

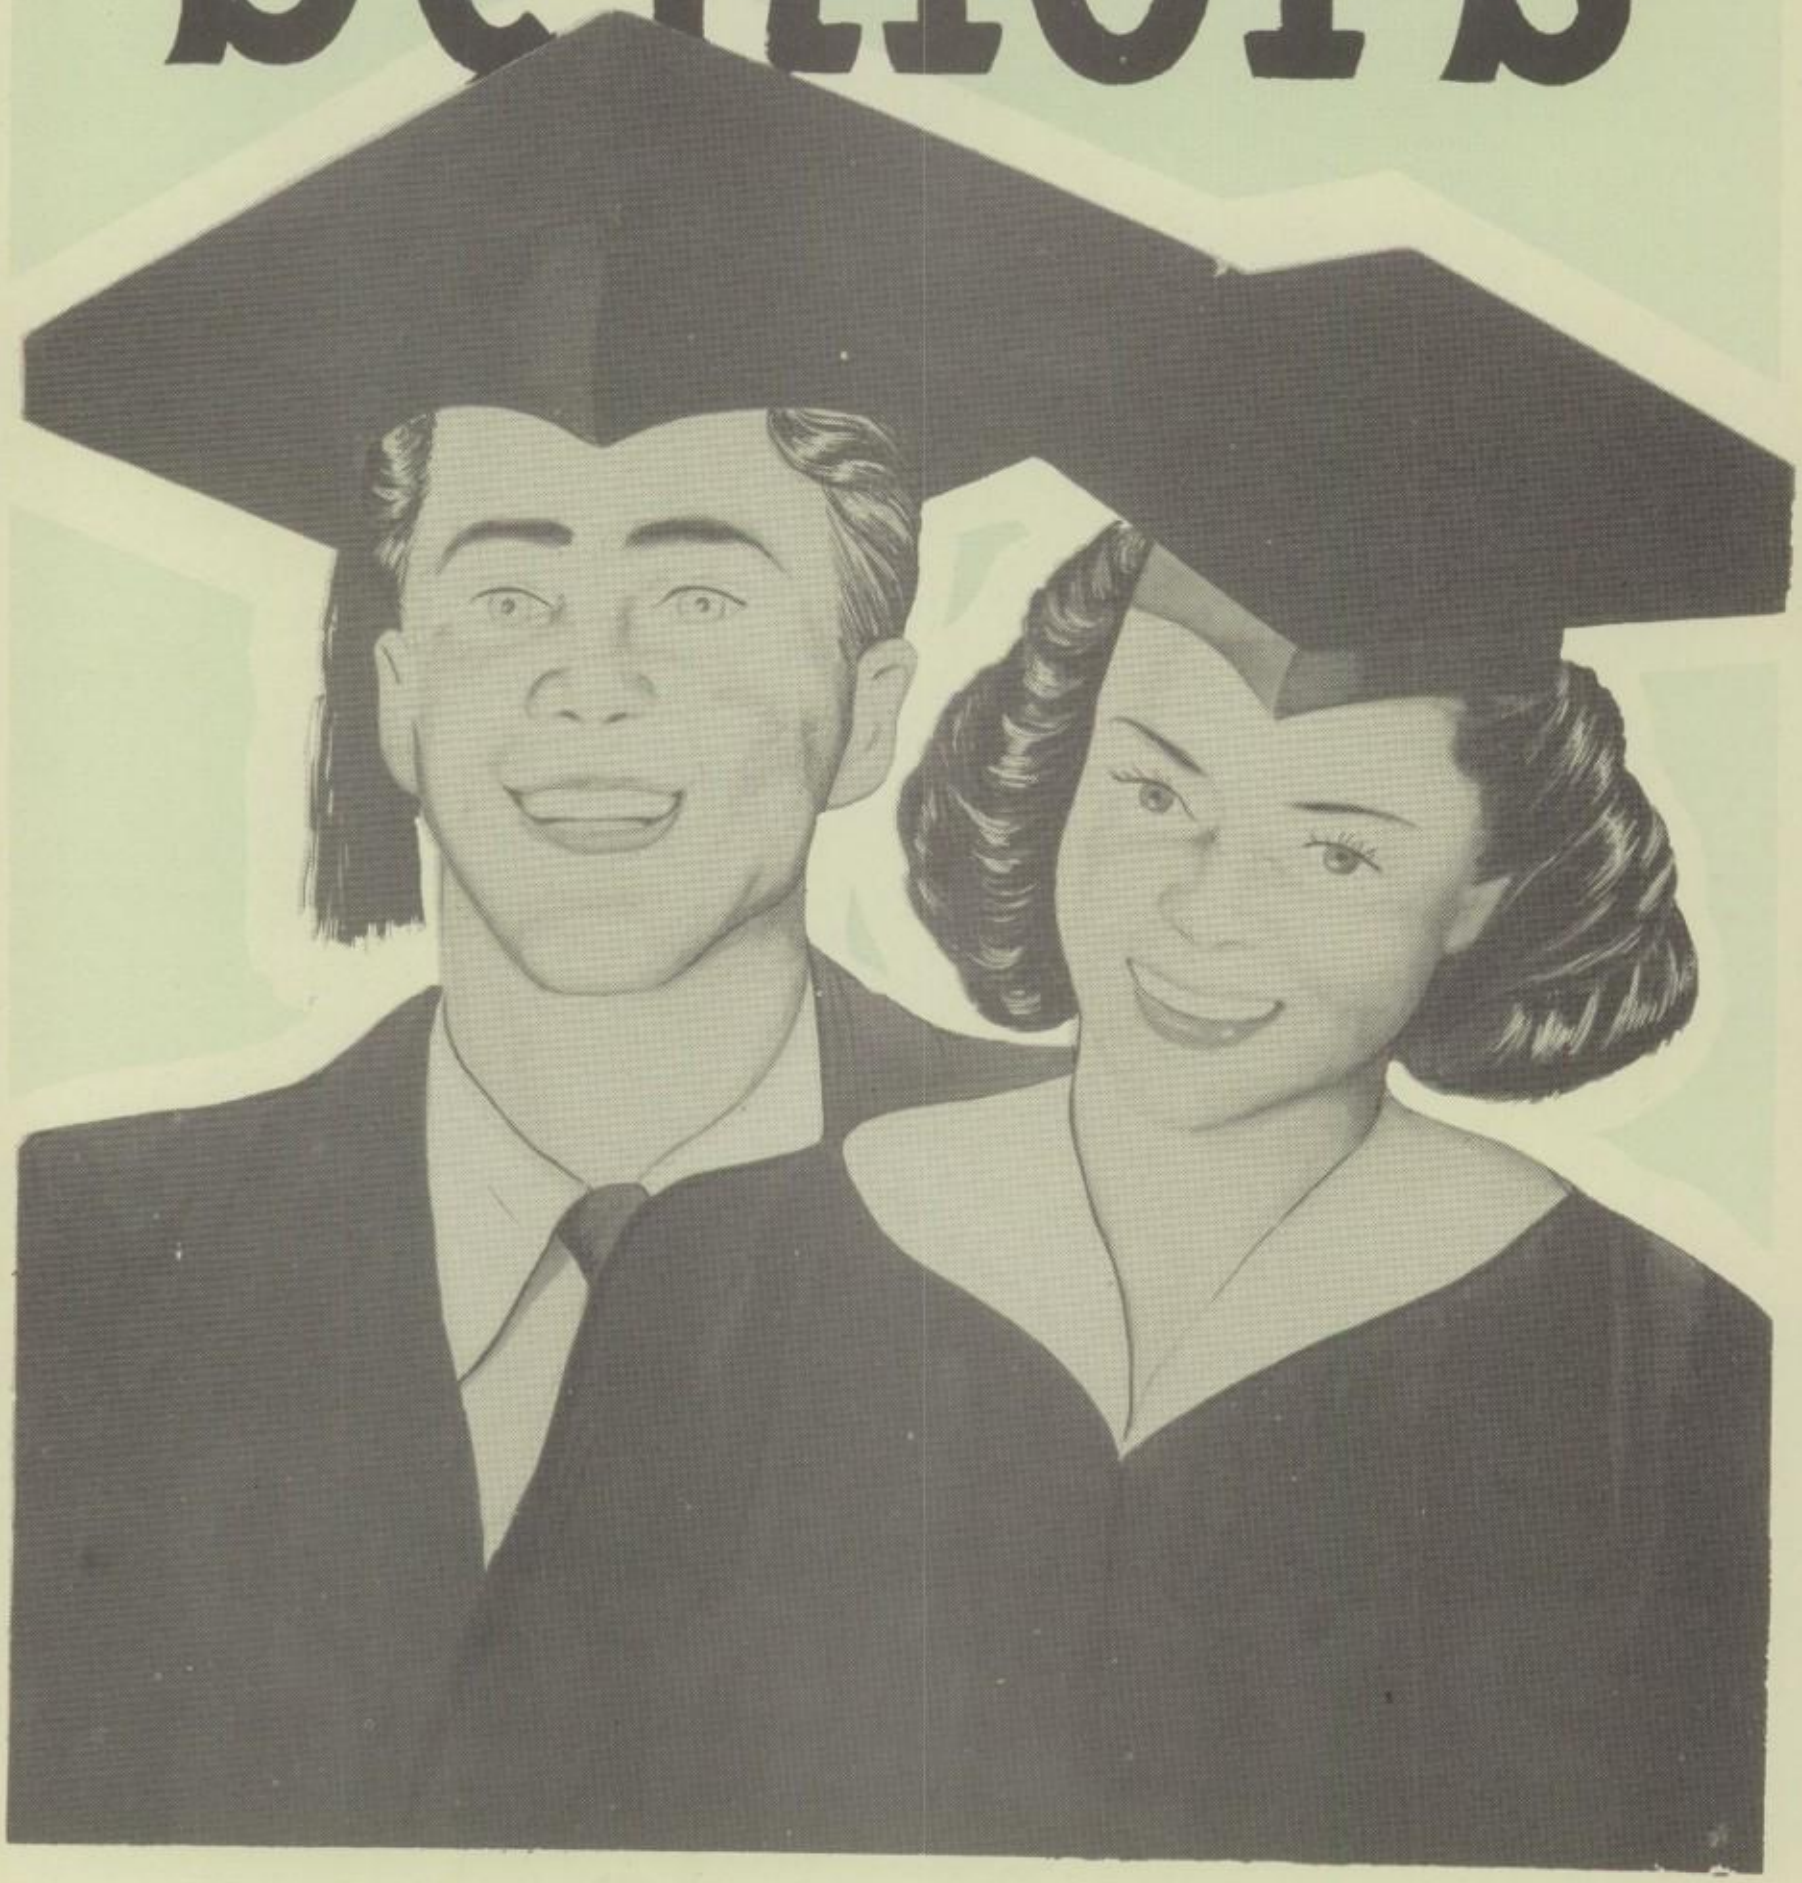
Firing the furnace, cleaning the rooms, fixing pipes, etc. all are done by our industrious and faithful janitor.

Below are the four faithful Chatfield school bus drivers, who safely carry the students to and from school regardless of the weather. L. to R.: Art Lutz, Raymond Telthorster, William Williams, and Donald Weber.

One of the most joyous occasions during the school day is lunch time. at least that is the conclusion drawn when anyone sees the rush at that time. We owe this to our cooks, Mrs. Clara Fauser and Mrs. Emma Beal, and their supervisor, Mrs. Lucille Durbin. We are always certain our lunch will be ready on time and that whatever will be served, ham, or macaroni and cheese, it will be tasty and satisfying to our palates.

Seniors



SENIOR CLASS POEM

We the class of '49
   are very proud to be Graduates from Chatfield High as you can plainly see.

The president of our class
   Welden Brause is he,
There's only one thing he wants to do and that's a farmer to be.

Next is Barbara Mollencopf who wants to be a nurse.
I really pity her patients;
   they'll probably ride in a hearse.

Donna Brown, our musical gal, can really play a violin.
But there's only one song she likes to play, and that's a song called, "Jim."

Albert McCoy, our he-man boy, is fond of Physics class.
One day when he was experimenting,
   he found a new kind of gas.

Phyllis Ostermyer, our secretary, very small is she,
The seniors really keep her as busy as a bee.

Then there's Dolores Kreim,
   our athletic gal,
To all the kids in school
   she really is a pal.

Oh dear, I almost forgot our sponsor, Mrs. Brown.
She has two little tots and lives outside of town.

Now you've met the '49ers.
   who are out to seek their goal.
There are only six of us
   as you all probably know.

And as we journey onward
   we hope you wish us success.
Of all the things we remember it's the days of our schooling, the best,

Our thoughtful and considerate sponsor, Mrs. Eula Brown.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Eight shy, but eager children began their 12 years of schooling in September 1937. With our lunch boxes, pencils, and tablets we entered the huge, unfamiliar building. Frightened, but excited with interest we managed to get through the first day, and three of us have gone 12 years together. As first grade students our class roll included: George Zaebst, Welden Brause, Franklin Zornes, Alice Schneider, Helen Rothhaar, Donna Brown, Eleanor Leonhart, and Phyllis Ostermyer. Our teacher was Miss Smeltz (Mrs. Clady).

In 1938 we began our second year. Having liked our first year all our class and one new pupil, Barbara Ehrhart, returned to be Miss Smeltz's pupils again.

The next year we had the privilege of moving into a different room. We were now third graders. We had the same class enrollment and Miss Pauline Green was our new teacher.

Again we were pupils of Miss Green in the fourth grade. New members in our class included; Carol Dornbirer and Barbara Mollencopf. During this year we had several parties at our teacher's home.

Our class grew larger as we entered the fifth grade. Marilyn and Marvel Shumaker and Lloyd and Noveda Agee were new students. Miss Clutter (Mrs. Walimire) was our teacher. Franklin Zornes and Helen Rothhaar left our class this year.

Our last year in the grades began in 1942. Miss Clutter taught the same students except for two new classmates, Ruby Agee and Nettie Dugger. Lloyd and Noveda Agee, Marilyn and Marvel Shumaker, George Zaebst, and Carol Dornbirer withdrew from Chatfield at the beginning of the year.

As frightened seventh grade students we took our seats in our room upstairs. We were now out of the grades and were almost ready for high school. Mrs. Crammer was our class sponsor. Eleanor Laipply, Frances Spears, Harold Brown, Albert McCoy, and Dolores Kreim were new students. We had various class parties throughout the year. Class officers were: President, Welden Brause; Vice President, Eleanor Leonhart; Secretary, Barbara Ehrhart; Treasurer, Dolores Kreim; Student Council Representative, Phyllis Ostermyer. We gave the plays "Fudge and a Burglar" and "The Ghost of Green Mansion" during the year. At Christmas time we had a party at the home of Eleanor Leonhart. This year we selected our present class flower and motto. Barbara Ehrhart moved to Galion at the end of the year.

At the first class meeting of the eighth grade the following were elected to hold office: President, Welden Brause; Vice President, Eleanor Leonhart; Secretary, Donna Brown; Treasurer, Barbara Mollencopf; News Reporter, Phyllis Ostermyer; and Student Council Rep., Dolores Kreim. Mr. Penn was our sponsor. On December 21, we invited the seventh grade to a Christmas Party at the school. We also had a Halloween party at the home of Phyllis Ostermyer. We acquired one new member, Marilyn Maudsley, and Ruby Agee and Frances Spears left Chatfield School.

After a frightening but an unforgettable thrilling initiation from the seniors, we were members of the high school. Class officers were selected at the beginning of the freshman year: President, Eleanor Leonhart; Vice President, Barbara Mollencopf; Secretary, Donna Brown; Treasurer, Marilyn Maudsley; News Reporter, Phyllis Ostermyer; Student Council Rep., Dolores Kreim; Sponsor, Mr. Penn. Ruby Agee joined our class again in September. We gave the play "Wise Freshmen" at an assembly program and also gave it at Holmes-Liberty. We sold orange and black beanies during the basketball season. May 15, we gave our first high school party. It was the "Farewell Party" for the Seniors.

At the beginning of our sophomore year our treasury consisted of $23.00. We gave a Valentine Party for the high school on February 4. During the year Ruby Agee left our class and Marilyn Maudsley moved to Attica. We sold popcorn at the basketball games. The ninth grade helped us in having a festival in the summer. Officers were: President, Donna Brown; Vice President, Eleanor Leonhart; Secretary, Dolores Kreim; Treasurer, Phyllis Ostermyer; News Reporter, Albert McCoy; Student Council Rep,, Barbara Mollencopf. Mr. Penn was again our sponsor. Near the end of the year we ordered our class rings.

Seven members began their junior year. Alice Schneider and Eleanor Laipply withdrew at the close of our sophomore year. Eleanor Leonhart moved to Tiro after the first semester. We gave the play "The Adorable Imp" on November 14. Mrs. Brown, our sponsor, directed the play. We gave the Junior-Senior Banquet, April 30, at the Rieger Hotel in Sandusky, Ohio. We had the "Gay Nineties" as our theme. A theater party was held following the banquet. We had the Christmas Party December 17. An exchange of gifts was held with Santa Claus handing them out. We had a festival again in the summer. Officers during this year were: President, Welden Brause; Vice President, Donna Brown; Secretary, Phyllis Ostermyer; Treasurer, Dolores Kreim; Student Council, Albert McCoy. Donna Brown, Phyllis Ostermyer, and Dolores Kreim became members of the National Honor Society.

We began our last school year in 1948. Only six members make up the '49 graduates. We elected the following officers at the beginning of the year; President, Welden Brause; Vice President, Dolores Kreim; Secretary, Phyllis Ostermyer; Treasurer, Barbara Mollencopf; Student Council Rep., Donna Brown; News Reporter, Albert McCoy. Our sponsor is Mrs. Eula Brown. We had the pleasure of initiating the freshmen at a "Hard Times Party" on October 8. We had a grand old square dance that night. We joined in with the juniors in giving the play "Mother Does The Talking" on November 12. All of us broke the camera at Heinrich's Studio at Bucyrus for our class pictures. The seniors sponsored a chapel October 28. Rev. Ivan Immel of Whetstone was our guest speaker. On February 5, Donna Brown, Dolores Kreim, and Phyllis Ostermyer journeyed to Sulphur Springs school to take the Senior Scholarship Test in which Donna placed seventh in the county. Welden Brause took the Agriculture Test the same day. We selected our gowns, name cards, and invitations in the month of February, and gave the senior play "Amazing Cracie" on May 13.

Our class colors are blue and white; class flower, red rose; and class motto, "Launched But Not Anchored."

Baccalaureate Services were held on Sunday evening, May 22, 1949. Our speaker was Rev. Norman Somerville from the First Methodist Church, Galion, Ohio. Commencement Services were Thursday evening, May 26, 1949, and our Speaker was Rev. T. C. Stellhorn, Zion Lutheran Church, Sandusky, Ohio.

I'm sure all of us in the coming years will look back and remember the happy days we had together in good old C.H.S.

FAREWELL!

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the class of '49, being of sound mind and good health do give our last will and testament.

TO THE SCHOOL we leave our fond memories.

TO THE TEACHERS we give students who will study much harder than we have.

TO THE JUNIOR CLASS we give our seats in the study hall, providing they will not ruin our cherished initials by their indolent carving.

TO THE SOPHOMORE CLASS we give our ability not to get along with each other.

TO THE FRESHMAN CLASS we leave the happy memories of initiation, hoping they will not have to experience it again.

TO MR. WEBER we leave our best wishes for more historical history classes.

TO MR. TAYLOR we will a brand new Senior class and fond(?) memories of us.

TO MRS. BROWN we leave our ability to write essays, sonnets, novels, poems, themes to her next English Literature class.

TO MRS. DURBIN we leave another gang of Home Economics girls who have the ability to lick pans and make noises as we have.

TO MR. LARABEE we leave a new class of second year typists who can type at least 20 words per minute.

TO MR. WILLIAMS we leave a physics class that get their experiments right the first time.

TO MRS. FAILOR we will a mixed chorus who know what they are singing.

WE, as individuals, give the following:

I, Welden Brause, will my trip to the post office every morning to Clifford Beck providing he will always bring back all of the films.

To Mary Brose, I, Albert McCoy, will my library period on conditions that she will always leave only one person in the library at a time, put all the books in their places, and dust all the shelves.

I, Phyllis Ostermyer, will my ability to get the car whenever I choose to the junior girls, and hope they have as much fun as I did.

I, Dolores Kreim, will my tallness and ability to play basketball to Sammy Gerhart, hoping that the team will take first place in the county basketball tournament for the next three years.

I, Donna Brown, will my interest in romantic novels to Lester Sheely, hoping he will not omit reading those of Charles Dickens.

I, Barbara Mollencopf, will my job in the cafeteria to Bill Gerhart, providing he will turn in his weekly report at the end of each week. Hope you have fun playing with the cash register.

THE END

CLASS PROPHECY

It was the morning of May 20, 1959, just two days before school would be dismissed for the summer. I had been teaching at Central High for five years now. It certainly does not seem like 10 years have gone by since the six members of my small graduating class had stood before all of those proud parents, relatives, and friends to receive their diplomas. As I prepared myself for another day of teaching, I could not help but wonder what my classmates were now doing. For a while after graduation I had corresponded with them but gradually, one by one, I had lost track of their whereabouts.

This was the day the State Director of English Education was to visit the school, of which honor we were indeed proud. Our school had achieved it for its high rank in the state for tests that were given. I was very nervous when informed of her arrival for I had never had the privilege of meeting her before, or so I thought. As she stepped into our room, I thought my eyes were deceiving me for who was it but Mrs. Brown, our class sponsor in high school. We talked for some time, not only of our English department but also of times in the past. She then found it necessary to excuse herself for she had a busy day ahead of her.

As much to my relief as to the students, the summer vacation finally started. I had planned a short trip through eastern Indiana and then on staying at Wawasee Lake in northern Indiana for two weeks and I was anxious to get started. I was not more than 40 miles out of the city when I saw what appeared to be an accident on the road ahead of me. As I drew near the place in question, I was affirmed of my observations. There was a truck on one side of the road and a car on the other and in the middle a much confused Highway Patrolman trying his uttermost to direct traffic. When I was in the midst of the excitement, I thought the face of the man was vaguely familiar, and as I regarded his face with discreet scrutiny I discovered it to be no one else but Albert McCoy. A short cry of astonishment escaped my lips which immediately drew his attention in my direction, and when he had recognized me he motioned for me to wait so he could speak with me. The wait was not long for soon he came strutting over to me in his sharp uniform of blue. This was his first call for directing traffic alone and he hoped to do better the next time and I assured him that I knew he would. Much to my regret he was then called away and I proceeded with my trip.

The drive being somewhat lonely I sought solace in the radio. The program catching my attention was a transcription of an interview of a young novelist who had just published her first book, Deep Waters, which was an immediate success. She was from Van Wert. What a coincidence that my itinerary was taking me through that same town which was now only 5 miles away. "Perhaps I could meet her," I thought.

I continued to listen to the program as I drove through the city. The interviewee was giving a precis of her book and I became so interested in it that I failed to see the car in front of me stop for a red light and I had bumped into the car. I got out to see if anything was damaged and whom did I see coming from the other car but Phyllis Ostermyer. Upon seeing me she began laughing and so did I for it was quite surprising for me to bump into her in such an unusual way. But, fortunately there was no serious damage done. As we were talking we heard a most unusual sound coming from the rear seat of Phyllis's car and upon looking I saw the cutest curly-haired little boy joyously cracking eggs. We could not help but laugh when his large brown eyes gazed up at us with the most pathetic look in them. But we could not stand in the middle of the street so Phyllis invited me to her home for supper, an invitation which I graciously accepted. After a hearty meal we spoke of many things, past and present, among them the subject of the novelist which I had heard over the radio. I was very surprised and indeed pleased when Phyllis told me it was none other than herself. Having nothing to do during her leisure time, she had taken up writing. I extended my congratulations to her and wished her much success in the future, and the hour being somewhat late, I took my leave of the happy family.

Just out of Van Wert the next day I passed large fields of tall, waving corn and golden wheat. This seemed just like we had seen farther west on our class trip to Yellowstone Park. As I passed the modern farm house someone mowing the lawn arrested my attention as looking familiar. He smiled and waved and upon looking more closely I thought, "Oh no! This just can't be possible," but nevertheless it was, for it was none other than Welden Brause. I stopped and spoke with him and he told me that he was now a prosperous farmer happily married to a sweet farmerette from Milford Center. He asked me to stay for the night but regretfully I told him that I could not.

I arrived at Wawasee Lake late that evening. After being shown to my cabin I was eager to meet my neighbors for the next two weeks but I fell to unpacking and soon became engulfed in it. I was somewhat startled when I heard a knocking on the door. Whoever could know that I was staying here, but there was no other way to know than to answer the door. This I did and who was standing on the opposite side of it but my close classmate, Barbara Mollencopf. Well, this certainly is a pleasant surprise. She said she had seen me come and hurried over to see me as soon as she could. I inquired what she was doing and she told me that she was a nurse at White Cross Hospital in Columbus and her first vacation of two weeks had just started.

The next two weeks of our vacation passed all too soon. Barbara and I had a delightful time together, talking of our "dear old school days". But the time for parting came and we thanked each other for the wonderful time together and promised to visit each other at the earliest opportunity.

My! How inviting home looks to a tired vacationer. Surely I must rest the remainder of the summer. But how happy I was that I had seen my classmates and seen how they were succeeding in their respective work. But there was still one more, Dolores Kreim. Whatever could she be doing now? I carelessly picked up the Toledo Blade from the reading table and began reading. An article caught my attention and I could not help but read it through. It was concerning sportsmanship in world affairs, calling to our minds the trophies won for good sportsmanship in sports, so why not try to win a trophy of peace and good-will in world affairs? As I finished the article I was astounded to see it was written by Dolores Kreim, the assistant editor. Well, she certainly had climbed the ladder to success quickly.

Happily I went to sleep that evening. Certainly the community of Chatfield could feel proud of these achievements.

Junior's

At the first of the year we, the Juniors, organized and elected class officers: President, Lyle Rothhaar; Vice President, Carol Schnarenberger; Secretary, Donna Ross; Treasurer, Donald Eppley; and Student Council Representative, Mary Lou Laipply.

We ordered our class rings in September, and also sponsored a hay ride for the high school September 17.

In November we presented our class play, "Mother Does the Talking," which was a great success. We wish to express our thanks to Mrs. Eula Brown for directing the play and also to the Seniors for helping.

In December the class was very busy planning for their Christmas Party, December 22. The gym was gayly decorated with Christmas decorations and colors. The Melody Four furnished the music for round and square dancing.

The Junior Class gave a Chapel Program January 26, at which Rev. W. W. Wernle of Attica was the speaker.

We gave the Junior-Senior Banquet April 29.

At the close of the year there are seven members in our class.

We are the sophomore class, eight in number, with Mr. Weber as our class sponsor. In October, Paul Butt withdrew from our class. We all felt s sorry to see him leave.

We sponsored the Thanksgiving chapel on November 24, with Rev. Carl Yahl of Sulphur Springs as our guest speaker. We also invited the high school and faculty to a St. Patrick's Day party in March. Thy gym was decorated with green and white crepe paper carrying out the colors of St. Patrick. The Rhythm Kings furnished the music.

Those who have so earnestly endeavored to fulfil the tasks elected to them are: President, Alice Heydinger; Vice President, Ramon Smith; Secretary, Lucille Wurm; Treasurer, Paul Butts and Edna Ruth; Student Council Representative, Carl Clark; and News Reporter, John Beal.

We are all looking forward to next year when we will be "the jolly juniors."

With eight members in our class, we began our first year in high school. Raymond Gerhart was elected to preside over our class meetings; Clement Studer to take his place in his absence; the correspondence for our class and keeping the minutes of our meetings were the duties of Joseph Kreim; our small funds were trusted to Dorothy Auck; and Clifford Beck was our representative to the Student Council. To supervise and assist our class was Mr. Williams.

On October 8, we had the unforgettable experience of initiation. The question arose in all of our minds, "How can people be so inhuman?" But we all survived and are now looking forward to the time when we will be on the giving instead of the receiving side of initiation.

Our assembly was held on February 11 with the theme of Lincoln carried out. A program similar to that of Truth or Consequences was also planned with students taking part.

At the close of this school year we shall give the seniors a farewell party in return for their initiation party.

And so the first year in high school comes to a glorious close.

Having gained much confidence during our first year in the Junior High we proceeded up another round in the ladder of education as eighth graders. Those elected to conduct the business of our class were: President, Jerry Heydinger; Vice President, Jimmy Haviland; Secretary, Shirley Ulmer; Treasurer, Marilyn Roberts; Student Council Representative, Dwight Rothhaar; and News Reporter, John Kalb. We felt honored in having our Superintendent, Mr. Taylor, as our class sponsor. On Halloween, we invited the seventh grade to a party in celebration of the same.

Rev. Knauff from the Chatfield Lutheran Church was the guest speaker for our Christmas Chapel.

Despite the feeling of dread for experiencing our initiation, we are waiting with much anxiety the title of "green" freshmen.

Trembling like leaves in the wind, we began our first day of being "up-stairs." Very proud were we of this long awaited achievement. The first election of officers in our class was held and those who have so faithfully fulfilled their duties during the past year under the sponsoring of Mr. Snyder and later of Mrs. Failor are: President, Marilyn Schifer; Vice President, Gerald Kreim; Secretary, Victor Wurm; Treasurer, Miriam Gerhart; Student Council Representative, Marcia Zucker; and News Reporter, Faye Ostermyer.

Although at the beginning of the year our class consisted of seventeen members, now there are but fifteen, Anna Lee and Hubert Harris having withdrawn.

On October 24, we were the quests of the eighth grade at a Halloween Party at which we all had a bewitching time. In return for this favor extended to us, they were the recipients of our invitation to a Christmas Party on December 23. Our dearest friend, Santa Claus, was also present.

We are now all looking forward to next year in the eighth grade, the last year in the Junior High.

Elementary

When school started there were 20 enrolled in the sixth grade. Since that time one person has withdrawn.

Last fall they invited the fifth grade to a Halloween party. They also enjoyed parties at Christmas and St. Valentine's Day.

They became members of the American Junior Red Cross and donated to several other worthy causes.

Nearly everyone completed the required number of Ohio Pupil Reading Circle books to receive an award.

There were 21 boys and girls entered in fifth grade last fall but three of them withdrew during the year.

The class enjoyed several parties this year. On Valentine's Day they sponsored a party for the sixth grade.

They joined the American Junior Red Cross and made contributions to several other worthy causes.

Almost everyone will receive some award for reading the required number of Ohio Pupil Reading Circle books.

FOURTH GRADE

L. to R: Top row: James Kalb, Floyd Mollencopf, Alfred Rarick, and Robert Zucker. Second Row: Agnes Wurm, Rosalyn Schifer, Gwendolyn Lutz, Marjorie Sheerer, Florice Brause, and Norman Brown. Front Row: Mrs. Feichtner, Helen Kocher, Margaret Leonhart, Rosalind Volk, Margie Schanzenbach, and Carol Gottfried. Martha Brose, Allan Clady, and Dorothy May were absent.

At the beginning of the school year, the fourth grade had an enrollment of 20 pupils. During the year Dorothy Brown and Beatrice Cline withdrew.

Last fall each pupil became a member of the Junior Red Cross. In January we contributed liberally to the "March of Dimes."

History and geography are new studies to the fourth grade. Our geography is especially interesting. We learn how other children live in the different parts of the earth. Our history deals with stories of our early pioneers.

Each member has read the required number of the "Reading Circle Books" for this year for which they will receive a certificate at the close of the year.

For a Christmas gift, we made our mothers a pretty bouquet of red roses.

Everyone enjoyed these parties during the school year: Hallowe'en. Christmas, and Valentine's Day.

There were 18 in our class last fall. Nellie Agee withdrew when she went to Tennessee. Later, she entered our class again.

We have learned how to multiply and divide. Very proud are we of this achievement.

Our new reading books are More Streets and Roads.

Again this year, we had two teachers, Mrs. Leitzy and Mrs. Feichtner.

At Christmas, Halloween, and Valentine's Day, we all enjoyed parties.

We liked to have a part in doing the operetta "Peter Rabbit" which was held April 8.

We had 25 in our class last fall when school started, but Shirley Harris and Joann Graves withdrew. Joann re-enrolled at a later date so we have 11 girls and 13 boys in the second grade.

We enrolled in the Junior Red Cross, also brought money for the "March of Dimes." More Friends and Neighbors is the name of our new reading book. We enjoy the stories and pictures.

We helped to give the operetta "Peter Rabbit."

FIRST GRADE

Twenty-one boys and girls entered the first grade on September 6, 1948 eager to learn the three R's.

Before the end of the first month of school we took the California Mental Maturity test.

Our first party was a Hallowe'en Party which we all enjoyed.

We were all enrolled in the Junior Red Cross and we also contributed to the "March of Dimes."

By the end of the first semester Florence and Nancy Cline withdrew from our grade. We completed the year with 8 boys and 11 girls.

Our last party of the year was Valentines Day. We exchanged Valentines and then had refreshments.

By the end of the year we had read the required number of Ohio Pupil Reading Circle Books in order to receive our first Reading Certificate.

Our last activity was playing in the Rhythm Band for the operetta, "Peter Rabbit."

Activities

The office girls helping the superintendent of the school.

Above are the librarians who are busy at work finding books and giving literary information to the students. Mrs. Brown is the faculty advisor.

AMERICAN HISTORY CLASS

The American History class seems to be busy studying and Mr. Weber is making certain that that is all they do.

EIGHTH GRADE SCIENCE CLASS

The eighth grade science class are comparing notes and making experiments. They appear to be very engrossed in their work.

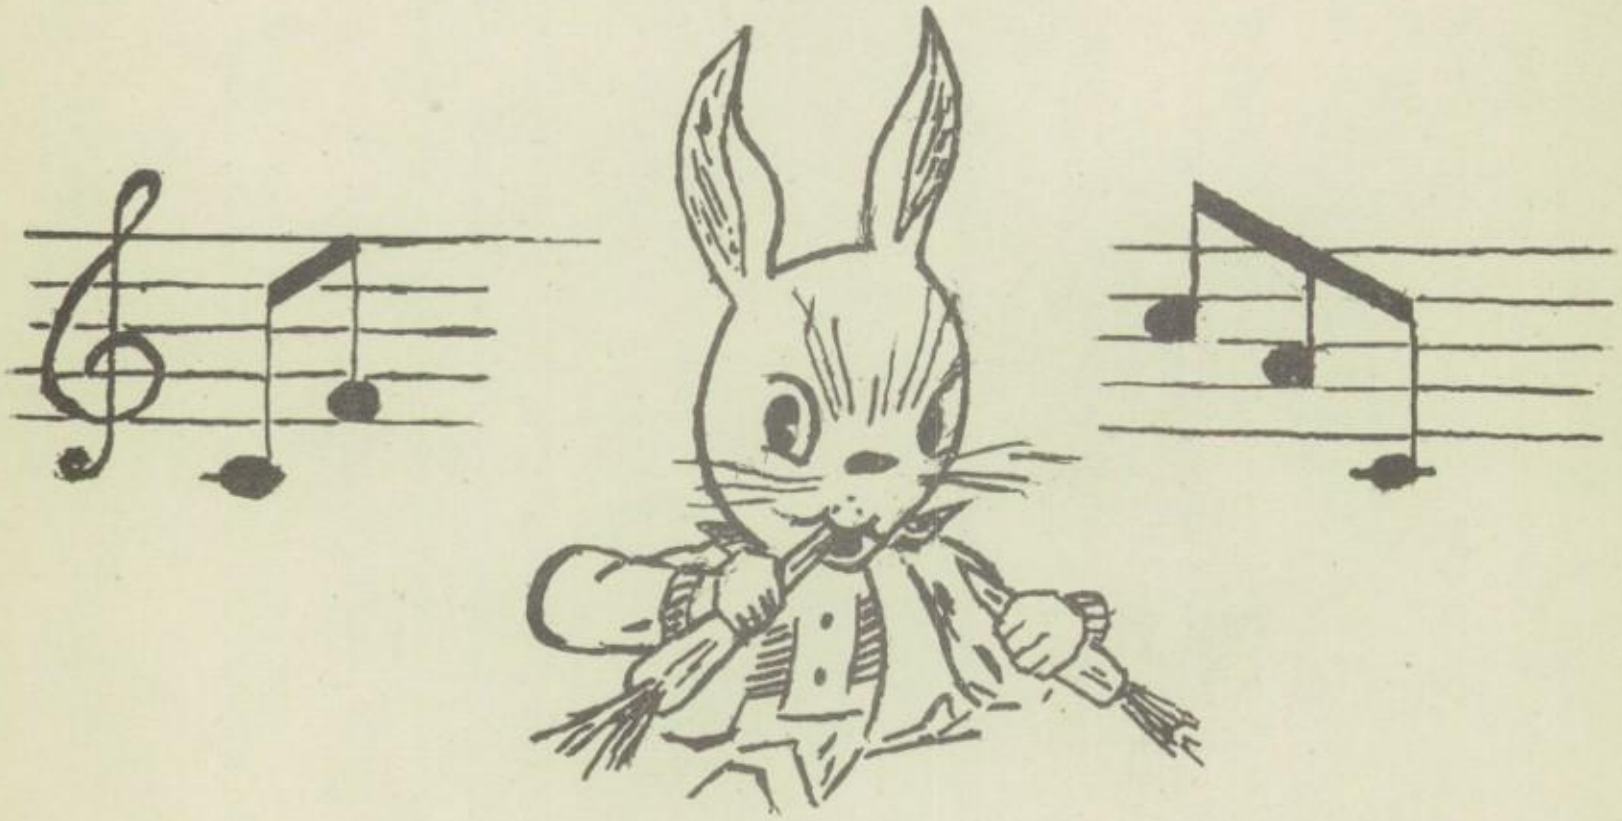
THE ORCHESTRA



"PETER RABBIT

The first six grades also added to the activities of this spring in their presentation of a grade operetta "Peter Rabbit." This, under the direction of Mrs. Fern Failor, our music instructor, and the teachers of grades one to six, proved a great success. The mischievous Peter was played by Roger Rothhaar, and Flopsy, Mopsy, Cottontail, and their mother by Martha Brose, Carolyn Schifer, Robert Kalb, and Anne Blackford respectively.

How the pen saves time for the plow

Like everyone else, the farmer has bills to pay and accounts to keep. But the farmer works long hours and town is usually a long distance away. He doesn't like to take time from plowing or other tasks, for mere bill paying.

FARMERS' CHECKING ACCOUNTS

Checks are, therefore, a real time and labor saver for the farmer. He can put a check in the mail any time and he writes his own receipt while he is doing it.

We invite farmers' checking accounts because we know how much these facilities will benefit them.
